Letter of Invitation: Climate Justice Meeting in Hanover, Germany

Dear Ms. Jenne Pieter,

Greetings from the World Communion of Reformed Churches! We are pleased to invite you to attend the WCRC's Climate Justice Meeting to be held in Hanover, Germany from the 31.10.2022 to 03.11.2022. The WCRC is calling together a small working group that will serve as the core group of the Decade for Climate Justice which you are invited to be a part of.

The venue will be the WCRC Global Office headquartered at the Calvin Center, Knochenhauerstrasse 42, 30159 Hanover. Accommodation is arranged at the Central Hotel Kaiserhof, Ernst-August Platz 4, 30159 Hanover (Booking Confirmation: 2529877571)

This meeting is scheduled for the following purpose:

- a. Outline the programmatic vision for the decade for climate justice
- b. Develop specific programmes within the decade
- c. Provide accompaniment for the programme
- d. Monitor the implementation of the programme.

In terms of article 3 para 1 of the bilateral agreement between the Federal Republic of Germany and the World Communion of Reformed Churches (BGBl. I, no 59/2014, p 2078 – 2081) we have informed the German Foreign Ministry about your visit. We have also submitted a copy of your passport to them. In support of your visa application the Foreign Office has meanwhile contacted the relevant German consulate in Indonesia.

We kindly ask you to submit this letter together with your visa application to the German consulate. We trust that the visa will be granted without delay and free of charge.

Please find attached a confirmation of your health insurance which is covered by us for the duration of your stay. All costs including insurance, board and accommodation will be covered by the WCRC. Please attach this confirmation to your visa application, as well. Thank you.

Wishing you a safe journey and looking forward to your contribution to this meeting.

With kind regards,

Rev. Dr. Hanns Lessing
Acting General Secretary
